

DOT Number Determination/Disclosure

Use this form to determine if your vehicle needs a U.S. Department of Transportation (DOT) number to register. DOT numbers are required for certain vehicles used for commercial purposes, defined as promoting, selling, or distributing products or services. Take or mail this completed form to any vehicle licensing office with your vehicle renewal or title application. If you have questions, call (360) 902-3770, Option 5.

If your vehicle has a gross vehicle weight rating (GVWR) between 16,001 and 26,000 pounds, including the towing unit, you are not required to provide your DOT number to register your vehicle until June 2012. If your vehicle has a GVWR over 26,000 pounds you are currently required to provide your DOT number to register.

To get a DOT number, you must complete the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration form MCS-150. You can apply online at www.fmcsa.dot.gov or call (360) 596-3810 to have a form mailed to you.

Gross Vehicle Weight Rating (GVWR) is the maximum loaded weight of the vehicle determined by the manufacturer.

The GVWR can be found in several places:

- A label on the inside frame of the driver's door
- In the engine compartment
- In the owner's manual or sales brochure
- For trailers, toward the front of the trailer on the left side

Carrier Responsible for Safety (CRS) is the person or company responsible for the safety of a vehicle or group of vehicles.

Federal taxpayer Identification number is your federal Employer Identification Number (EIN) or Social Security number (SSN). If you do not have an EIN you must provide your SSN. We cannot accept your Unified Business Identifier number.

Operating under your own DOT number

If you are the owner of the vehicle and will not be operating under a long-term lease agreement, you will be operating under your own DOT number and you are the CRS.

Operating under someone else's DOT number

If you have entered into a lease agreement to operate your vehicle for an individual or business, you will be operating under someone else's DOT number and they are the CRS. You are required to provide a copy of the lease agreement, a certification of lease, or a letter from the lessor when you register your vehicle.

The certification of lease or the letter on company letterhead must include the following:

- A description of the lease. For example:

John Doe, XYZ Trucking Company, is presently leased to ABC Trucking Company.

Mr. Doe will be operating under our DOT number, _____, during the term of the lease.

Our EIN (or SSN) is _____.

- The term of the lease in months
- The full name and address of the lessor and lessee
- The year, make, model, and VIN number of the vehicle
- Lessor contact name and daytime telephone number

Short-term lease is a lease agreement between two parties that is expected to expire within 30 days of the date of the agreement. In a short-term lease, you are required to have a Carrier DOT number to register your vehicle. A copy of the lease agreement should identify the lessor that is the CRS, must be carried by the driver while operating the vehicle, and must be provided to law enforcement when requested.

Long-term lease is a lease agreement between two parties that will not expire within 30 days of the date of the agreement. To register a vehicle that is operated under a long-term lease, you must provide:

- Your DOT and federal tax ID number (registered owner)
- Lessor's DOT and federal tax ID number (CRS)
- A copy of the lease agreement, certificate of lease, or letter from the lessor

When the lease expires or is terminated, you must notify the Department of Licensing.
